Misses Two Flies and Makes Wild Throw. Yet Cardinals Triumph by 3 to 2.

CUTSHAW SPOILS CHANCE

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 5.—Bob Beschler made three errors in left field to-day, still the Cardinals nipped the Dodgers, 3 to 2. Beschler missed two flies and made a wild throw to the plate.

Three runs in the third chased Sherrod Smith out but Sallee held the lead to the finish. The first four batters singled off Sallee in the second, but no one scored, as Cutshaw was caught off first after his single. The score:

BROWNS SUCCUMB TWICE BEFORE YANKEE ASSAULT

Caldwell Limits Visitors to One Run in First Game and Fisher Allows One Less in Second—Poor Base Running Done by Both Teams.

YANKEES DEFEAT BROWNS

The Yankees defeated the Browns in both games of yesterday's double header at the Polo Grounds. This achievement gives Donovan an even break on the season's schedule to date. St. Louis dropped to seventh position, below Cleveland, which was raised in at Boston. The Athletics broke even with Detroit in two slugging matches at Shibe Park. Rains kept the White Sox idle in Washington.

New York sprung a double barreled surprise on Branch Rickey's Browns at the Polo grounds yesterday afternoon.

William Donovan's men performed no less a miracle than winning two games in one afternoon. They had beaten better clubs twice in one day, but not those Browns. Somehow St. Louis always managed to come out of its trance every time it tackled New York. It was these trailers who first ruined Donovan's pennant bid and sent him down the soapy chutes clear from the top of the ladder.

Not did they tamely submit yesterday afternoon. It was all the Yankees could do to nose out their erstwhile persecutors by scores of 3 to 1 and 2 to 0.

St. Louis ran lead first into some pretty tight hitting. Ray Caldwell led the honors against outpunching Weiland in the opener. Strict diagnosis of the respective performances of these gentlemen would show that Slim was entitled to the verdict. The Mount City boys gathered eight hits, but only the second, when they bunched two dandies for their only run, the swats came with no proud manner of success. The long sidewheeler of Rickey was tied for eleven safeties. The Yankees did not beat execution in the fourth, when they practically won the game and when they might have had double the number of runs had they bunched their heads up.

Lowmiller insists that New York hereafter should to hook up with any player on one of his very best days. The Vermont schoolmaster wouldn't allow a run, so that Lowmiller didn't have much of a chance. Though Fisher allowed only two hits he had a cake walk. Ray was rather wobbly at the start because of his wildness, and the two hits allowed the visitors to prize their heads in each of the first four innings. They had a man on third and another on first with one out in the first inning of the second game. That started the second with a triple. Men were on third and first with two out in the third and another runner was on third with two down in the fourth. That St. Louis was unable to cash any of these opportunities reflects to the credit of Fisher's pitching, the high tone of his support—and, well, maybe just a shade of reverse action as to St. Louis's wit in base running. After the fourth inning Fisher bowled over the Browns in one, two, three order each time they came up against him.

Whether or not the prospective arrival of a bevy of battery material has succeeded in setting the minds of Donovan's high salaried pitchers and catchers, the fact remains that the tail end of the order stood out very prominently in the run getting of each batter.

The three runs of the first game Trot Donovan. Baumann carried home one of the two for the heavy hooved Sweeney in the good night ending. The Yankees scored its only run in the first game in the second inning. Walsh, who played center field, drove a double to left center with one out and rode in on Lavon's clean single to right. Agnew fouled to Numanaker.

Numanaker drew a pass to start the third. He went to third on Caldwell's single. The night ending, however, was a home run by Numanaker. Peck beat a punt toward third base. Malsel singled to right, scoring Caldwell, but Peck pitched overcast second. A moment later Hughes was doubled trying to score off Pipp's foul to Walker. GIANTS CHALK UP THEIR FIFTH STRAIGHT VICTORY

By taking both games of yesterday's double header from the Cincinnati Reds the Giants got right into the thick of the pennant fight. New York is only three and a half games behind the leading Phillies, who dropped a game to Pittsburgh after a thrilling battle. The Cubs moved into second place by a fractional point because of their victory over the Braves. As St. Louis defeated Brooklyn the Dodgers tie with Boston continues, though for third now instead of second position.

Runners, Jumpers and Weight Men Surpass World Marks in Practice Trials.

JUNIORS SET FOR TO-DAY

By MELVIN W. SHEPPARD.

Coach of Millrose A. A.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—If the national championships of the A. A. U. had been held to-day instead of to-morrow and Saturday as scheduled there would be a bunch of new world records to write down in the books to-night. Running, jumping and weight throwing alike produced remarkable performances in the practice workouts of stars from all parts of the country.

The present attention is centered on the junior championships to be held to-morrow but the big events of the day following command more interest than that early this morning, when Ted Meredith would be the point of the hour right now if it were not for a big negro named Diamond. Meredith, who is looking on Diamond, who has the mile straightaway trial this afternoon in 48 seconds, finishing with a little effort at sprinting that he seemed capable of two seconds better time. Diamond, however, is said to have done over a half mile trial. He has improved over a mile trial that early this morning, when he was beaten by a negro named Diamond.
